“ I can't express my sorrow without feeling my heart get heavy and the tears welling up in my eyes. I am so greatly sorry to the Mehringer family for the loss of this great artistic, funny guy. Eric, I have no memory of you without a smile on your face and I wish I could be there to say one last goodbye... I will miss this wonderful individual. Eric, you made me feel welcomed at Jasper High School, and you kept me company our Freshmen year at USI in Mr. Parrent's Color and Design class. I never had the chance to tell you how good you were at drawing. Occasionally, we'd run into each other on campus and I can picture each introduction you made with a goofy smile and a laugh. Rest in Peace, Eric. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ George and Clara,
We are very saddened by your loss. There is no understanding why such things happen to such promising people. Only God knows the plans he holds for each of us. Just know your family and friends are in our daily prayers. May Gods guidance be with you through this difficult time. Sincerely,
The Buchta's

“ I met Eric my first semester of college, and even though he left, we always kept in touch. I can honestly say he was friends with everyone he met. He was so friendly and would be there for anyone. Whenever I saw him, he would have a smile on his face. I always thought we would be life-long friends. No matter how busy our lives got, we found time to catch up. I regret that the time between those moments great further and further apart, but we never think these things will happen. He always had a way of making me laugh! He will be greatly missed, and I'll never forget him.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I was introduced to Eric when he came to Evansville and USI and have always loved his personality. He was with us when we went to Washington DC and Baltimore and the spring break trip to Panama and gave us so much happiness. His sense of humor was amazing and the world is poorer from no longer having him here.
