“ I always loved my Aunt Esther, and will always remember her giggle laugh and the fond memories of my summer week stays at the farm. She always made me feel welcome, assured me the cows wouldn't hurt me, and stuck up for me when the boys thought it was funny. She was always a great friend to my mother, and now they are both watching over all of us. May God bless you dear cousins with peace of body, mind, heart & soul. Your city cousin, Sharon
