“ My prayers are with all of you. This is Donna Slye Wattenburger one of your cousins. Sorry I won't be able to make it in from California to be with the family. However my prayers are with you all. Remember Jacki and Barbara and the rest I love you all and have never forgotten you all even though i have been miles and miles away. I never forgot our summers at grandmas and grandpas and visiting Aunt Martha and Aunt Helen when we were all younger. Those memories have always been apart of me. Love you all and I will try to get back home soon to see everyone.
