

Flor D. Maglalang

December 8, 2012

Mrs. Flor D. Maglalang of Santa Claus, Indiana, 70, passed away the 8th of December 2012. Surviving her are her husband of 48 years, Demetrio Maglalang and four sons, Herman (Indianapolis, IN), Alfred (Honolulu, HI), Dmitri and wife Michaela (Lincoln, NE), and Maurice (Indianapolis, IN), her sister, Felina Jarina (Cebu, Philippines), and her sister-in-law, Ellen Dalocanog (Las Vegas, NV). Surviving grandchildren are Hannah, Gracie, Mason, Nijel, Isley and Ocean. Flor lived a full life as a wife, mother, grandmother, VUJC college professor, St. Meinrad Financial Aid Director, private entrepreneur, and economic consultant to the Philippine government. She travelled the world over for both business and pleasure including China, Korea, Japan, India, England, Russia, France, Italy, Austria, Indonesia, Switzerland, and Turkey to name a few. Flor lived life to the fullest, never fearing the challenge of the unknown. Despite all that, she never lost her gentleness, her subtle sense of humor, her sweetness and loving ways that left a mark on all the lives she touched. She was a beautiful wife, a beautiful mother and grandmother, a beautiful human being. Flor was the “life” of any gathering, so it was only fitting that in her final moments on earth, her family and close friends toasted her as she had toasted life; with laughter, stories, and vigor. What Flor lacked in stature, she made up for in her large presence to all those who had the pleasure of knowing her; one never had to wonder when Flor had arrived, her entrance was always memorable. Our memories will never fade and our love for Flor will live on forever. Funeral Services will be at 7:00 pm (Eastern Standard Time) on Saturday, December 15 at Becher-Kluesner Funeral Home, Downtown Chapel, 214 East Seventh St., Jasper Indiana and delivered by Father Ray Brenner of St. Joseph Church. Visitation will be 4:00-7:00 pm (Eastern Standard Time) on Saturday before the funeral services at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to the Sisters of St. Benedict in Ferdinand, IN. Online condolences may be made at www.becherkluesner.com.

“ DM, It was with great sadness that I read of Flor's death. I have wonderful memories of all of you:the many New Years' Eves we spent together, all the parties, my 40th surprise party, our Filipino meals, Tom's pig roast without the skin!! etc., etc. I am sure that Tom and Flor are catching up with each other on the other side. Please give a hug to each of your sons from me. With Deepest Sympathy, Mary Weber

“ DM: and Sons: DM, Over the past few years, I have come across both you and your wonderful wife, one of my instructors at VUJC (VERY FOND MEMORIES) of Flor teaching Business and her wonderful wit, humor, enlightenment, and education she always delivered. I am saddened to know evenn though it was randon seeing you at Holy Rosary here in Evansville, the mall, and other random businesses here that Flor is now past on and that you have a wonderful memories of her. She touched all of us whom was in her life and I can not be more but thankful for her work. I know she knew I appreciated her leadership and education. God Bless you all during this time. My prayers, heart, and mind are with you. Flor is always a memory in my mind.

“ I am saddened to hear my favorite college professor has died. She was the best teacher. She made accounting fun and interesting and I loved to listen to her stories. She really cared about us, her students. She will never be forgotten! My thoughts and prayers are with DM and all her family and friends.
