“ I am so glad Mom (Mary Helen Beyke Boyer) and I took the time to visit Aunt Fanny last June when we were in Jasper for the Beyke reunion. Fanny's spirits and clarity were good that day, so we were fortunate in our timing. She reminisced about being pregnant with her twins in 1951 when Mom was pregnant with me. I told her how nice the photo of her and Ralph was, and she remarked how happy those years were. The lesson I take from Fanny is that it's never too late in life to find happiness. I've told her story many times and celebrate a life lived well.
