“ This is my dad. I knew he was a wonderful man, but reading other's comments confirming my opinion makes me even prouder to be his son. He was, and will forever be, my hero. I just hope I can be half the man he was. Thank you all for the kind words.

“ I knew Frank from Good Samaritan. He was always a motivated person when working in therapy. He was always kind hearted. Last year he made candy bar snowmen for each therapy staff member, that included a pair of gloves, as their hats. He always had a gentle smile and hug to give. He will be greatly missed. You have my deepest sympathy in your loss. Frank was a spiritual man and I have hope and full confidence that he is in Heaven celebrating his homecoming, and reunion with his wife that he greatly missed, and others that have passed. I am sure our father in heaven is saying to him "well done good and faithful servant". I am sorry I am unable to attend his visitation today, I would of like to have come. again you have my sympathy, Katrina Buse
