“ I have fond memories of playing with Gail when I would visit her as a child...dolls...grocery store...dress-up...endless list of fun. Truly will be missed.

“ Where do I start? Gail and I grew up as kids in the same timeframe 60/70. Gail would talk of riding her bike to the pool , reading “the Archie’s” , listening to 45 records, eating certain candy , playing outside in the summer until it got to dark to play... the list goes on. I met Gail at Memorial Hospital as a co-worker. I have laughed so hard with her. I have some wonderful memories. Will miss my co-worker friend!

“ So many wonderful memories but one of the best was the huge water balloon fight with the Schultheis boys. The kitchen was flooded and Cheryl had Prom that night! We were all so lucky to have Gail in our lives. The Bohrsers send our sincere condolences.
