Ed Schepers - November 02, 2018 at 10:11 AM

“ Garet was an amazing friend. I've known him since my freshman year of high school. He was always there for his friends.

May your soul rest peacefully in heaven, and may your body rest peacefully in the earth. May your family and friends always remember you, and your spirit live on through all.

I pray that each day for your family gets easier and easier, and even if the pain never dies- I hope that the memories overcome the pain and numb it just a bit. I hope that we can have as much courage as you did.

And lastly, I pray God accepts you and accepts us all in his kingdom so we may all be able to stand by one another with no pain and no sin; just peace and love.

Goodbye Garet, forever remembered.
