“ *Lord of the gentle night, of comforting darkness,
Guiding light and faithful companion,
Turn your face upon me.*

*Secret was my birth,
Silent were my feet upon your path,
For no one knows the hour of your coming.
The perfume of your arrival is as a cool breeze,
The welcome of your voice, sweet music, from a golden lyre.
You stand between the worlds in the mists of Time,
Before the twin pillars of Life and Death.
Turn your face upon me.*

*Lord of the Crossroads, I hail you.
Guide me in death as in life,
May I walk in truth and balance,
That my heart may be pure and light upon the scale.
Turn your face upon me,
My beloved Lord.*

“ So sorry for your loss. I have memories growing up and hanging out with Natalie at his house. What a funny man.

“ The family of "Gary Flamion" My deepest sympathy to the "Flamion Family." I am so sorry for your loss. I met Gary when I put pick up my papers at the Herald. God took a wonderful man to heaven. Gary was a wonderful man & always kid around. He is in heaven with my cousin Ed Neukam; those two are starting their own Herald in heaven. God be with you all.
