“ I met Jerry while serving in the Air Force, Yokota AFB, Japan. We were the best of friend from 1964 until the day he passed. I have never known another person like Jerry in my whole life. The stories we told got bigger and more outlandish every year we repeated them. He was a good man who was so proud of his family. My only regret is that we didn't live closer to each other. God Please take care of Jerry and watch over his Family.

“ I have known Gerald for years. I worked at First Bank in Huntingburg and later for Freedom Bank. Gerald always greeted us with a smile and was ready to tell a joke. He was so sweet and brought us candy at Christmas. So sorry for your loss. He will certainly be missed.
