“ Wanting express deep, heartfelt condolences, just can't find the words. I have fond memories of Jerry when we were kids and going to the Lincoln Museum, picking blackberries for Aunt Patsy to make delicious treats and going to the zoo and botanical gardens with our aunts. He was so easy to get along with. Spent time with Grandma Scheirding together as well and enjoyed it very much. Of course family gatherings at Grandma Bizelli's were also so much fun. Was able to find him on the computer and travel vicariously through him as he was kind enough to share all his photos of all his adventures. He always made time to send a note to check in. Sending love and prayers.
