“ For Margie and her family.... I am very sorry to hear of your father's passing. Just know that he remains with you in spirit. Your fond memories of growing up, family gatherings, holidays and just your father's smile and working in his workshop will be constant visions to lessen the pain. My prayers and blessings are with you during this time.

“ *Janice and her entire family are in the prayers of her St. Monica small church community in Indianapolis. Mr. Schepers was obviously an active member of the community who made his mark by improving the lives of others in his town. He served God and his country with honor and grace, and we pray for the repose of his soul. Drew Carey
