“ I want to send my condolences to the whole family. Kathy, I realized you probably didn't know who I was at the Parish Center and I think I introduced you to Pam Freyberger as a sister instead of daughter. Sorry. I remember all those years ago taking you and Ann down to school at Evansville. Betty and Ida Mae You and all your family are in my thought and prayers. Sorry I didn't make it to the funeral home or funeral. I read the paper too late. Blessings! Carol & Danny Mehringer

“ Julie Burns:

Julie, We are so sad to hear of the loss of your mother. We know she was a real jewel to the family, and she was one to whom one might look to for advice and counsel, for all of her children, and grandchildren. Really she lives on, thru all of her children and grandchildren, in spirit and love for each other.

Both Linda and I send you our deepest condolences, and we find solace in that we know we shall all meet and gather together at the foot of our Jesus Christ, at some future date. May the Lord give you the solace and the strength to make it thru these next trying several days. In times like these, we all can find strength and understanding in our Lord Jesus
