“ *Dear Ardie, Dannise and Nancy and all - I am most saddened to hear our dear old Gib has taken flight for other horizons but while he was on this earth he gave a lot of pleasure, a lot of laughs, a lot of friendship to those of us who met him years ago. He and Shelley lived next door to us in Greenland. Dannise was just a new baby and I came there with a boy 8 mos. and had a girl 2mos. when we left. We had the greatest times at the Off. Club every Sat. night. There was a dance and a fantastic band made up of guys stationed there. We put on shows and Gib would regale us with It's In The Book. I'll always regret not going to the Colorado reunion when he did it again. I was in Spain or somewhere. Am happy tho that we had an email relationship. We were stationed in San Bernardino twice and Reno once together while he and S. were still married. Well, Woody and I made it 30 years before we said adieu - 5 kids. He's doing very poorly now - almost 95 and we expect him to be joining Gib fairly soon. I'm hitting 82 in October but well so far, thankfully. Sorry I never got to meet you Ardie but know you made him happy. Please give my condolences to the girls and tell them I have such happy memories of their Dad. Believe me, he'll be doing It's In The Book wherever he is and this time it'll be a different book, tho. Love and God's blessings to all of you always -

“ *Ardie I'm sorry sorry to hear about Gib. We still emailed one another on occasion. He'd not mentioned illness or anything. Know that the Army Security Agency - Military Intelligence list still talk about meeting with you and Gib, and the great time we had in Cherokee even though Gib was under the weather. Take care of yourself. With Condolences,

“ I never met Gib face-to-face. I talked with him on the telephone about the time he joined our chat group of military intelligence veterans. I admired him greatly and feel privileged that our group got to share with him some of his final years. My sincere condolences are sent to all of his survivors. Don Barker
