“ Greg was a fun guy to be around....too bad our partying took place at the cancer center. I feel honored I had the opportunity to spend time with him. We laughed and cried together.....Do you think he is flirting with the angels? Lol. Love you all!

“ Missing you each and every day, Greg.
You were far more than just a friend...
My heart aches to see you again some day...
And you better be ready to dance & go for a RUN! Bring on the chipmunks...
Love you always,
~Christine

“ To all of the Hurst Family, Our deepest and most sincere sympathy. Greg was a true friend for me, Michelle. We had some great times during our darkest times. I hate that I could not be there this last time. I'm struggling with my own health issues, but felt Greg's spirit with me deeply Wednesday evening. God be with you all! Cheryl and Ralph also struggled not being able to see him before they left on vacation and will not be able to make their condolences in person. Please know you are all in our prayers and upon our hearts during this time of great sorrow!

“ May God find all those who mourn the loss of Gregs physical life this day. He lived his life touching others hearts, I didnt know him as well as others may have, but its one person I hope to meet again. My sympathy to the family and friends that mourn, but let us rejoice that we have this hope, the hope that we shall see Greg again. Somedays seem so long, but life is short, and Greg was taken early, the mystery of life and death is hard to understand, Greg left a stamp on many folks - his love, laughter and smile. You will be missed, praying for the time we may meet again.

“ To all the Hurst family, I am Florian's daughter, Oscar's niece, haven't been in touch with any of you for many, many years. Still remember fondly all the Hurst children when you lived on Rees Street. Thought the world of Myrtle and Oscar, and loved hanging out with you Jasper kids, since we lived in little Dubois. My dad was Dave's godfather, but remember all you guys. Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of Greg, and know I will remember him in my prayers tonight. God bless.

“ I haven't seen my Jasper in a very long time, but once you met him, you would have never forgotten him. He was a sweetheart, I will always remember that beautiful smile and the fun we had at the Eagles dances. But at least my dear friend you are at peace, and there will be no pain in heaven. If you see my Brad there, please tell him that I love and miss him, as cancer took him as well. Donnie, Linda and the entire Hurst family, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the friends and family of Greg. Greg was so lucky to have so much love around him, I know he had amazing support and love. I never met Greg but I know from what his niece Emily shared with me, he always had a good time, big heart and was always smiling. Hope Greg is at peace now. Thoughts and prayers to his family and friends,
