“ I never met Greg in person, but we spoke on the phone occasionally and had monthly email correspondence for work. I just found out about his passing away this week (Feb 2023) when his employer phoned to tell me after noticing my payment emails in Greg's inbox. I had noticed a difference in the payment responses from Dixie, but never would've guessed the reason. Stunned and heartbroken to hear the news, I've never even seen a picture of him until now. To his family, please know that your husband, father, son, brother was as kind to his customers as you would've expected. His sincerity and gentleness shown through his written and spoken words every time, and I feel a real sadness knowing that he's not here any longer. May you all find peace and comfort in the days ahead. I'm terribly sorry for everyone's loss.

Denise, I come onto his page often for comfort. Thank you for your kind words. My father took so much pride in his work and connections with other people. He was a very gentle and compassionate soul. It makes me so happy to know that he touched you without ever knowing what he looks like. It just goes to show how his personality and spoken/written word affected so many. -Avery

“ My deepest sympathy to all of Greg's loved ones, family and friends. I'm as heartbroken as all of you are. Greg may have been my cousin, but he was more like a little brother. Growing up across the street from family was so precious. I remember babysitting Greg, Rodney and denny, all of us playing tether ball, our front yard was the baseball/softball field and we all played nearly every day! Later in watching Greg, Shane and Travis playing hackey sac in the front yard for hours! Greg you were so loved and you will be missed so much. You were such a good man. I love you and will see you again. 🙏❤️. Debbie
