“ James and Rachel, I want to extend my condolences to you, having read the online obituaries of The Evansville Courier. I was thinking about your mother just the other day. Providential, it's happened several times with me lately.

I am Rosemary Berger Binkley's niece, so I've known your mom and dad since I was child. Your mother and I had a mutual admiration society. You've been a dedicated son, taking such good care of your mother. I know you think it's nothing, we just do it but it doesn't always happen that way. You have my praises and thanks. We talked at, maybe Uncle Bink's funeral? I remember seeing you a couple times in the past few years when we were both visiting Jasper. Can't recall the last time I saw Irma, if she was at Laura's wedding or at Bink's viewing? I know I visited her a couple times when she was at B'side. I live in Muncie and since mother died in 2005, I don't get 'home' as much as I used to. Take Care. Prayers and Sympathy, Sarah Berger Humphrey

“ Dear Jim:

I am so sorry that I did not get to meet your mother. I think she must have had a good sense of humor, and I would have enjoyed that.

You have been a good son--more attentive than any I've ever heard of. It's going to be difficult, especially when you try to second guess your decisions. Just remember that you don't have a crystal ball, you're not God, and she had a longivity and wonderful quality of life because of your care for her.
