“ honestly, I really didn't know her that well, what I do know is although I didn't know her, she made a great impact on me and my life. everything seems so different now, hopefully we can still find some kind of normality in this world. I never realized how much I loved and needed her, untill she was gone. I do have a great memory of her though, in about second or first grade, we were taking a restroom break, and every one was ahead of her. but she didn't care, she was just skipping down the hall, and singing a made up song of her own. i remember feeling bewildered by her behavior, but now I realize that is what all kids should have the honor to do. not stand in lines, as quiet little sheep. isabelle meyer was, and is a great role model for us all.

“ She would be so happy in middle school... I remember one day towards the end of the year in 5th grade I said " are you excited for middle school" and then she said " yes but will u help me with my locker" and I said yes. And I remember her telling me how much she is gonna miss me. I wish I could've hung out with her way more.
