“ I remember dancing with my grandpa at Disneyland when I was little. It was fun and magical. When I was college aged Grandpa Jack and Grandma Diana allowed me to stay with them while I was in ultrasound school. I got much closer to them during that time. Had I not had them, I might not have the career I have now, and I might not have ever moved here and gotten the job I have now. My life could be very different if I didn't have him in it. I thank God for the person he was to me.
