“ Our most sincerest prayers and deepest heartfelt condolences are sent to Jama's family and friends. Please find comfort in each other during this time and know that your extended family of brothers and sisters in the Patriot Guard are here should you ever need us for anything at all. Jama, I'm so glad I got to personally Thank You a couple weeks ago for all you've done for our military servicemen and women, their families, our veterans, and communities. Individuals like you, Joe, and others in our group are what makes this world a lot better place. You've made a difference in many people's lives, and I'm a better person for having known you. We will surely miss you. Ron Coleman 'Chief'

“ Joe and Families,

I am so sorry for your sudden loss. But as I tried to express to some of you today, each sword has two edges. When you feel the pain of the sharp edge of this one, try to find the other, soothing side which is tempered with the knowledge that she suffers no more and is really having the ride of her life! And, remember what to do when The Son is shining.

You will find the strength to go on from within yourself, by drawing from each other, as well as those around you who you and Sweetie touched in each your own special way.

I regret I will be unable to see you tomorrow, but will never forget you or our dear Sweetie Pie. Stay Safe and Take Care--of yourselves and each other.

*Respectfully and sincerely,
Pete*
