“ We only got the sad news in the mail this morning 4/08/09. We are so sad to hear of Jimmy's passing. We was one of the easest going , even tempered men I ever have known, always fair and honest. I now know why I have been thinking about jim and marilynn so much in the past 2 months, even tried to find there home on google earth. I will try to call my sissy a little later this morning. You all will be in our prayers. Tim

“ Dear Amy and Marilynn, People cross the path of our lives and leave a mark that remains in our memories. Your husband and father will be remembered by me with fondness and joy. He had a deep reverence for others that showed every time I met him at St. John's Church. Our loving God welcomed him with joy and reverence as he entered eternal life. Peace to all of you. You are in my prayers. Sister Anne

“ Dear Amy, I am so very sorry to hear about your dad. You and your mom, and family will be in my thoughts and prayers. We're given many gifts as we go through life. Some we're allowed to enjoy for a long time, others only briefly. But each gift has the power to change us, enrich us, to make us better people. In your sadness, may there also be joy that you had such a person to love. And I know exactly what you are going through as my dad died a month ago on February 19th. May the memories of having a great father help to lift you in this sorrowful time. Love, Annie

“ *Dear Sonderman family: I was very saddened to hear of Jim's passing. I enjoyed working with Jim thru Fastec for over 20 years. He was without a doubt my favorite customer. It has been over 9 years since I last talked with Jim but I will always remember him. He was a hard working guy who loved his home and his family. His word was his bond, honest as they come. Please know he will be missed and I am sorry for your loss.

“ *My dear Marilyn, Amy, and Sonderman family, My God's peace be with you. I was blessed to have known Mr. Sonderman through my friendship with Amy at SMWC and beyond. He was as kind and welcoming a man as I have met in my life. As I have said to Amy many times, I think her mother and father are incredibly special people, and she is a direct reflection of that. Our parents developed an immediate and lasting friendship while Amy and I were at The Woods. I know, having just lost my father last week, that his Irish eyes are smiling to be in Jim's presence again - and forever. No doubt there's going to be one heck of a party in heaven on St. Patty's Day. May God grant you some measure of peace and comfort in knowing that Jim has seen the face of God...Party on Jim and dad! With love and deep condolences,
Katie*
