“ Molly, We are deeply sadden by the sudden lose of your beloved James. Our hearts ache for you and your family but knowing that he was a believer is such comfort. May God peace be with you and the kids in the days, weeks and months ahead. Your Presby family has been praying. I think James was diagnosed about the same time as my mother. He leaves a great legacy!

“ Dear Molly and family, You lost your husband at the same age that I lost mine in 1980. I am reminded just how fast life can turn, and how we are forced to continue on whether we feel like it or not. Your children will need you more than ever now, so pray for strength. I will never understand loss, but there is peace in knowing James is not suffering anymore. We send our heartfelt sympathy to you and recall your beautiful smiles at Presby last Christmas. You have a big family and I know they will be there to support you always. Love to you as you all grieve, Charlie & Connie Ker
