“ I lost my best friend. I loved Janet or should I say "Jan ass" as Tom called her. I loved hearing her story when she and Tom were in a Vegas store when the doors suddenly shut. In walked Frank Sinatra !! She was a classy lady and I never heard her talk bad or gossip about anyone. She would help you out in a minute. My nephew called her one very snowy night and ask her if she wanted us to come get her and take to Wicks and drinks. She was ready to party. I enjoyed her so much. She loved her horses, hummingbirds and her flowers in the summer. She never missed sending a birthday card or just thinking if you card. She was one fine Lady. She loved me like I was her sister. Everyone that met her was always ready to include her in our get togethers. She was fun whether cheering our Indiana Hoosiers or Phil Mickelson in golf or just hanging out cooking and listening to Michael Buble'. Never a sad day with her. She didn't think non those things. Love to Nancy, Julie, and Chip. Your mom was the Best. And she loved her brother Dick Mattox. She was very proud of him. I love you all and I will think of Janet and all the fun we shared 😊

“ I miss mom already..the spirit of beauty and the way she loved her Nancy..pure gift. A woman with a keen sense of style and delight..She made smoking cigarettes look glamorous!Janet assuredly is basking in the joy of heaven. ..dancing with Dorothy..Rest well Nancy remembering your mothers smile, laughter and love for you. Wear her rings..maybe all at one..one day..Just because you can. Bless you in your grief. God is with you..Gretchen aka..Sunshine.
