“ Betty and Lynn, my condolences on the loss of your sister. I do not remember her personally, but know it is never easy to see a sister go before you. I will keep you and all the family in prayer and trust God will hold you with gentle hands as you encounter the next few very difficult days, and thereafter secure you with tons of loving memories of your youthful, healthy days. May God bless you and may Dolly RIP, free from pain and reunited with missing loved ones.
