Janice was always a very good friend of mine. In younger days, when Wilmer and Zane were both in good health, we traveled several trips together, to country music shows, and church singings, etc. They were always such pleasant people to be with. They were always satisfied to do whatever we suggested. I will miss visiting with her at Brookside.

I spent many summer afternoons on her front porch with Diana. I remember her smile and soft-spoken voice. My prayers and love are with the family.
