“ Janice has been my dear friend for 40 plus years and I will be forever blessed with so many memories. We started out being Kmart coworkers, but it turned into a deep meaningful relationship that included countless visits at her home, going places (some interesting adventures), very personal and spiritual conversations and just over all joy being together. JR, as we fondly called her, had a love for her plants and flowers, the birds and the outdoors, was so sharp with numbers and dates, and was always giving things to me and others. She taught me the importance of praying (for others and for yourself) and to keep holy water to use in my home. She was such a kind and generous person and I pray that she knows how much I loved her and will miss her.
