“ Keith and Karen:

My sincere condolences in the loss of your precious son, Jason. My heart is grieving for you. Though I never knew Jason personally, I felt like I did through the kind words you spoke of him, Karen. I remember you fondly, and recall the many times we spoke of our families. You always had such tender and kind words about your two children. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My heart was heavy with sadness when I learned of Jason's death. Words fail at a time like this. May you find comfort in knowing that others care deeply and share your sorrow. Jason was lucky to have such a wonderful family. May your memories of him and your love and support for each other carry you through.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Jason and I worked on several projects together at NAL, and I became quite fond of him. He always seemed to know how to make me laugh, even when I was having a bad day. I would always tell him how much he reminded me of my son, and he would tell me how "cool" my son must be. :) I will always remember that smile, and will think of him when I am having a bad day at work, and how he would tell me how it could always be worse, as he grinned ear to ear. I am blessed that I was able to know him, and will miss him. I pray that your family can get through this difficult time, and know that there is a reason for everything, even if we don't understand why. God Bless you all.

“ My wife and I also work with Jason at North American Lighting and have never met anyone with such a great personality. He was always a joy to be around and could bring a smile to our faces even on the most-stressful of days. It is with profound sorrow that we learned of his passing and his memory will last a lifetime. Our thoughts and our prayers go out to his family and friends. He will be remembered very fondly and missed by many.

“ My deepest condolences to the Jerger family. It has been awhile since Jason and I talked, but his smile and great sense of humor have and always will remain with me. John 14:1-3 “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.”

“ My husband Keith works at NAL and was very fond of your son. He was so depressed when he came home from work on Tuesday after learning of the tragic death. Please know that for a grumpy ole man like Keith to have been fond of Jason; he must have been quite a great young man. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and all of your family and friends. May God bless you always. Vallerie/Keith Williams (Paris, IL)

“ What an amazing individual we lost with Jason Jerger. Jason and I met shortly after he started working for NAL. Both being Purdue grads (10 years apart), we had an instant connection and became friends. RIP Jason, you were a man that was much too young and talented for this tragedy and a friend that will be missed forever! Please know my thoughts and prayers are with Jason's friends and family.
