“ Dear Jim & Mary, I hope this finds it's way to y'all after the years. I've wrote a hundred letters and copied y'all some pictures of his birthday that us 4 had at the trailer. Jason. I cannot sum up what he meant to me in a short letter. J & I had our problems as all couples do, but long before that time of our lives he was my friend. We always said always friends first!!! And before we knew it we were in love. He was so special to me. He took me on an adventure that most people only dream of. We went to both coast, 5 amusement parks, 36 shows, and traveled in that Explorer with Harpua. Oh, how he loved his dogs, his sports, his music, and them jerseys!!!! My heart, my memories, I spent many times with you & Jim. I thank you both for welcoming me into your family. I always felt welcome. My love, my J. , my prayers daily. His J
