“ I got to share a special recipe of egg in white sauce with JERRY. He was my brother in law that I got the opportunity to take care of him for a short time. And he refer to us as The Outlaws. Instead of the Inlaws! Going to miss you. Definitely an impact.

“ My favorite memory of Jerry would have to be of him grilling for a big gathering of friends & family. He had the smoke rolling, but we all laughed & he was in his element... entertaining everyone. He didn't know a stranger. To know him was to be loved by him. Thank you for the memories my friend.

It seems whether you have known Jerry a short while or all your life when you remember Jerry you smile. I met Jerry as a freshman in college and he became roommates when we moved out of the dorm. The time at Western was life changing for many of us in our group as several spouses were met there. Going into the second semester my sophomore year I had figured out two things I wasn't going to major in but didn't have a clue what I was going to do. That's when Jerry asked me to take an accounting class with him and I found a major. I am so sorry I will not be there but will remember you his loved ones with thoughts and prayers.
