“ *Tammy, Becky & Sorrels' extended family: Today words are hard to come by! Jimmie was such an Interesting guy to be around; known Jimmie for so long yet feels like not long enough. Yes, Jimmie has 'Gone Home', a Place we all strive to be going; yet there will be a missing place on this temporary 'Home'.
May Jimmie 'Rest In Peace'; our Prayers now are for and with Jimmie and You, his family!

“ My deepest condolences to the wife Tammy and all the family, may JD rip, he's home with God now, may we all 1 day meet up again with Jimmy., I often say, my brother, I truly mean that. A True Brother, spoke his mind, no matter what, told us many story's, some sounded crazy, but I listened anyway, riding with JD and Tammy and the riders, really extinquist who we are as a people. the love of motorcycles bringsout the very best in people. the love and friendships are built, respect is always earned. Some people fish, and u have that senerity. True Brothers, is for ever, and Jimmy is and forever my True Brother. you will be missed, until we meet again. ride easy in the heavens, and guide us into safe paths.
