“ Woolsey family: It is certainly sad that Joanne is no longer with us and there is no doubt in my mind she is with the big guy. That's where big hearts go. Though I am the youngest of baby brother Norm's clan, I will always remember her huge smile and infectious laugh; and of course the stories of our dad Norm and Joanne's childhood tussles. The fun those two had with each other throughout their lives was quite evident - based on the length of the stories! You all will be in our prayers. Don

“ Woolsey/Fromme Family,
Please accept our wishes of peace and love at the loss of Aunt Joanne, a fine woman. As a young person, I used to marvel at your mother's beauty and funny stories. Your dad was my godfather, but mom was really another godmother, too.
There are so many happy memories of the Fromme clan. I recollect many a late night enjoyed by the Fromme adults. Laughter would bellow from our living room until the wee hours of the morning. There was enough love, oration, opinions, cigarettes, food and drink, and brother/sisterhood to wrap around the world two times over. In terms of family dynamics, this Germanic family had a complexion more similar to that of Italians or Greeks. Your mother organized a happy home that all of the cousins wished to visit, especially Christmas Eve. Calling the kids from all parts of the house to dinner...Mike,...,Mark..., Marlon, Monte, Max, Missy..., was my favorite and how nifty that you all are "M an M's". Stacy, Tammy, Kurt, Guy, and Don, love all of you and are big fans of you and your parents. On this one, we will forfeit, "Woolsey Talk" is supreme!
With Love and Admiration,
Stacy Fromme Baugh

“ To my Woolsey cousins, I am sadden with your mom's passing. I realize how many of my fond memories are associated with cousins and extended families. Many of the memories seam to be just a glimmer now but none-the-less they somehow give me a warm feeling as I try to piece them together. Your mom and dad laughing, their voices, seam to flash by a lot as the movie reel turns. I think they thought I was an angel....well maybe not :) Missy, thanks for helping and looking after our mom. “ Fromme Family, I'm sorry to read of Joanne's passing. She was a swell gal, having been through a lot in recent years. Mother and she used to talk late at night, until mother, Helen Berger, passed in '05. When I was in town last year, Joanne, Joyce Brandt and I went out to dinner. It was good seeing her.
