“ *I know how shocked you all must be just as we are also shocked. We will truly miss seeing him out at the river. We would always stop, talk a little, and have a refreshment with him. On Sundays mornings we would hear the boat coming and knew he was taking his Dad for a boat ride. Then when Bill passed on, it would be Jack by himself Sunday mornings but we are sure his Dad was still riding with him in spirit. Now they are both boating and fishing together. It will not be the same at the river. Please accept our sympathy for your loss.

“ There will forever be an empty hole within our race fan family. Big Jack's sense of humor and big belly laugh has been a part of our race weekends for years. Jack was an institution at our house and someone we looked forward to catching up with season after season. We extend our sincere condolences to Andy and the rest of Jack's family. He was a true gentle giant. Love, Greg, Beth and family
