“ TERESA I JUST HEARD OF YOUR FATHER . SO SORRY

MIKE DOYLE - June 12, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Mary Lou and family and Frieda, I just read about Joe and I am so sorry. We will never forget the squirrels, and rabbit and music and just coming by to see Dad. You have our deepest sympathy and prayers. May God comfort each of you.

Julie and Ed Teder - June 06, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ *Dear Mary Lou & family, Sorry to hear of Whiskey Joe's passing.
Always looked forward to seeing you and Joe during the NH Kunstfest and at the Big Liar's Whopper's Contest while you camped out at Harmonie State Park. Joe was a master storyteller and everybody enjoyed his presence. Whiskey Joe will not be forgotten, his memory will live on. We express our sincerest condolances to you. May God Bless You All - Fellow Whoppin' Liar - Scott*

“ My deepest sympathy to Joe's wife and family. He was a good friend and motorcycle enthusiast. We only rode together a few times, but we had many good times at the Legion. He will be sorely missed.
