“ Kiki, Carey, Craig, and the entire Schneider family, I found out yesterday, and am so very sorry for your loss. I wish I could have been there in person to tell you, and I have been thinking of you all every hour since I heard the news. I will close this inadequate note of condolence with a Celtic pray: Deep peace of the quiet earth to you, deep peace to you

“ I am saddened by the death of Jo Vern, she was a cousin as well as a friend. I have many fond memories of Jo Vern when we were children. I regret that distance and time have caused us to lose touch with each other. Jo was a special woman, as good and kind as Aunt Sarah. I would appreciate any time to hear from one of her children, however, Mary Ann tells me what she hears from Jasper. My deepest regrets and sympathy for your loss. Regards, Sue Daniel.
