“ It's almost been a year beautiful. You're so missed. I want to say thank you. Thank you for being my first and bestfriend when I was new at plaza. Thank you for being the only person who came to my 13th bday party. Thank you for encouraging to do better in school and to join the cross country team. You're an amazing person and I'm sorry we fell off. I love you sm beautiful. I hope you're resting peacefully.❤️

“ I was a nearly full-time substitute teacher last school year at CCMS. I am a former mayor of Hopkinsville. Wrecks like this just tear at my heart so badly. Kaylee was an 8th grader last year. Just a beautiful student from A-Z. The whole community seems in everlasting grief. So hurting along with family and friends. Such a beautiful picture of Kaylee! Sincerely, Wally Bryan

“ My most vivid memory of Kaylee was Christmas 2 years ago. We had recently taken in a kitten(Navin) and she and boys loved him. They were running around the house playing with him and you could just see the joy they had. I'm not sure who was happier that day Navin or the kids. You will be missed!
