“ He was my Personnel Manager and the main reason I wanted to pursue HR in college. He was so affable and respected at Jasper Desk. I met him through one of his many good friends, Jack Brandt. My heart and prayers go out to the family, and I pray that all the good memories may overcome the natural grief and sense of loss that follows the passing of a loved one. He was a great man--funny and tough. He always treated me kindly and fairly, and I thought very much of this special man. Heartfelt condolences go out to all friends and family, but particularly to his adoring daughter Becky and granddaughter, Kendra, one of his biggest fans. May God rest his good soul.
