“ Words are just inadequate to express the shock, sorrow, and deepest sympathy we offer your family today. We are so deeply saddened by your loss.

It's been a few years since I last talked to Kent. When we did though it was as if time had stood still. The years vanished in an instant and we could have still been kids running around the yard together catching lightening bugs! That conversation and those family visits when we were kids will always be fond memories.

Keeping your family in our hearts and prayers.

I have great memories of Kent and his attempt at playing the piano. He thought that with a few lessons, he would be playing like the people on TV. Such a prince of a guy. Emma Jean Weber Conklin
