“ I've only recently heard and I cannot imagine the pain you're going through Tony. Kyleighann was my best friend when we were younger; she helped me through some traumatic and difficult times back then and I can never thank her enough. Due to a difference of opinion, we parted ways but I never stopped thinking of her. We had recently spoken over Facebook and it had ignited a hope within that we would mend our friendship. She was a fantastic and loyal friend, brought me out of my shell and made my teenage life so much more easier. I never imagined that she would be taken from us so soon and I can't express enough how sorry I am for her loss. She'll forever be within my heart. RIP Kyleighann, you will be sorely missed. xxxx

“ Never thought i would be writing this to such a beautiful person so soon. Kyleighann, you where such a good friend to me at school, the only person that gave me the respect and friendship that i could ever ask from a friend. All our times at school where full of fun and excitement but sadly we split up after school. Peoples lives change for the better and i see yours did too, but you where always never without a thought in my heart and ill never forget you. My condolences to all your family RIP Angel xxxxxxxxxxxxxx
