“ Lance was a wonderful student in my Interpersonal Communication class last spring. What an inspiration he was--always bearing kindness and compassion. Lance was funny and witty, intelligent and insightful. His observations into human behavior and life in general were always relevant and important. Upon completing his degree in social work, Lance was looking forward to devoting the rest of his life to other vets. This was a noble calling for a gentle and wise man. We at VUJasper mourn with Lance's family and friends.

“ *To Lances Family,
We were veterans who went to school with Lance. We want to honor him as a veteran and a fellow class mate. Today 42 balloons were let go in Lances honor. I asked because I thought it should been a 21 Balloon Salute. From Ann K Wahl and David Michael McNeeley.*

“ I am shocked and saddened at the loss of such a wonderful human being. Lance was a student in my English class at Vincennes University. He was intelligent and caring, an excellent writer, and a wonderful student and person. He will be sorely missed. May God bless him and enjoy his conversations and wisdom as much as I did.
