“ You all know Larry was a good guy, but had a stiff upper voice we all knew well. When it came to intertaining people Him and Jeanie always were the best. What I remember was when Toni and I use to hang out. We would have sleep-overs, and one I remember well was when we got into his home-made wine. Darn was good. I love this family and praying for all to heal in this difficult time

We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your husband, Jeannie, and your father, Toni, and grandfather, Kristofer and Whitney and little Preston's great grandfather. And vicki and Paul and all the rest. This is very hard and it is hard to focus on him being in a beautiful place free of pain. Love and Hugs to you all. Prayers, too.
