“ Larry and I were reacquainted after my wife and I returned to Jasper in 1996 after a 30 year absence. I had known Larry and brother Paul since our high school and Rumbach Grocery days. I truly enjoyed our conversations, trips to local restaurants for morning coffee with the guys, and visits to Rich Steinhart at a local nursing home. It was truly rewarding getting to know Larry again after all these years. Larry's smile was contagious. We have been living in Pennsylvania since 2014. I regret I did not see Larry before we left Jasper. Marge and I send our sincere condolences to the entire Nolan family at this difficult time.

Rest in Peace Larry and keep smiling. God Bless You.
