“ Chad, Stacy and Tara, I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mother. Your Mom was always so upbeat and positive she will be missed. She was so proud of her Family and took great pride in all your activities and achievements. She was one hard worker and never seemed afraid to tackle any task or challenge. You all have my deepest sympathy and will be in my thoughts and prayers. God bless LaVerne. Rich

“ I am the daughter of Clara Keusch Combs who was Albert's (her father) sister. I did not know Laverne well as the last time I saw her is when we visited Sally Keusch Leninbach in Ireland. That is a shame that we lost touch as families sometimes do. We were raised in Michigan and now live in Arizona. I am so sorry to hear about the suffering she had to endure before she was called home. My prayers are with her and her family.
