“ I know Lena from Good Sam. I always enjoyed her company. She told me how to butcher a chicken as she did this frequently, back in the day. If I remember right she might have worked for a chicken house? I LOVED HER GERMAN ACCENT, and her personality. Rest in peace in the arms of Jesus, Miss Lena

“ Lena's springerle cookies were the best ever. Although I am unable to attend her memorial service today, I will always remember her welcoming smile, big heart, inner strength, and love of family. Lena is an ongoing inspiration to all who were blessed to know her during her 105 years.

“ Met Mrs Seitz when i lived in the neighborhood on Franklin St. i often stopped to chat with her as i walked my dog. She enjoyed our visits sitting outside in her carport area & often showed me her latest quilt creation. One day my dog slipped out of the fenced backyard & she followed him for a block. He recognized her & came when she called him. She then picked him up & carried him back to our yard alerting me of his escape. I was forever grateful for her kindness to both of us.
