“ I so admired his love for life. I will be missing seeing him out and about dancing or working in his flowers as I stop at the stop sign by his house. Now he’s in heaven dancing amongst the stars!! 🌹

“ Leo was a wonderful second cousin. My dad, Eugene Wehr, and Leo did carpentry together. Marilyn, my sister, and I would stop by for a visit when we saw him outside. God’s blessings to you, Leo, now and always.

“ We were one of those that waited over a year for Leo to build our house; and it was well worth the wait. What a kind, and wonderful man, what else can one say. He was a blessing to our family and we cherish his memory. Our condolences to his family and many friends. God Bless you Leo. Dwight and Geri Slocum.

“ What a nice man he was, and very smart! I stopped by his place one day and offered to buy some rooster comb starts. He said he wouldn't sell them to me but would give them to me. It was a pleasure meeting him.
I knew his daughter, Sheila. She was another wonderful person and gone too soon. My condolences to his family and friends.

“ Thanks for your beautiful “Merry Christmas” sign each year. I always said it wasn't Christmas until that sign was out!

“ I didn't know Leo, but always thought about stopping by to meet him and congratulate him on his long life and beautiful place he "shared" with the community. I regret that I never did that. Seeing his family depart before him had to be tough, but he soldiered on and focused on giving to the local area. It seems everyone knew Mr. Eckerle whether they had actually met him or not. A great life.. Our sympathies to the entire family.

Leo Eckerle was my dad's cousin and he and his brothers built my family's home on Newton Street. After Mom's death, I sold the house. A realtor stopped with her client and told him that it was a well built home-something for which the Eckerle brothers were known!

Although we have been gone from Jasper for 35 years, Leo has remained in our thoughts and hearts. The house he built for us in 1986 was the best constructed house we have ever lived in, and we have often remembered Leo and Lora Lou with great fondness. After Lora Lou passed, we were happy to hear that Leo continued to enjoy the things he loved to do. Our heartfelt sympathies to the family.
