“ *BernetteLocklar. I sorry to hear about Leroy's passing. I know that he felt with a lot of health issues in the past couple of years. Dad still talks about Leroy being on the farm when he was young. I think there is even a story about someone getting Leroy to drink home bree as a young boy. I still remember Leroy from his time as a basketball referee. Please know you are in my prayers and that Leroy and his signings and parents will be remembered at mass at our parish. Fr. Dear Bernetta and your beautiful family. Our deep regrets at this time of sorrow. You and Leroy were our first neighbors after Mike and I were married and we will never forget the great people you are and neighbors you were to us. Hold on to each other closely and know he is still with you in spirit. Sorry we could not make the visitation but please know you and family are in our prayers. God bless, Donna and Mike Linette
