“ I love the picture you chose for Aunt Lina.

I can't capture all that she means to me. She was our Boehman family pillar. She cared what we did, she took pictures and kept diligent notes on the back of every picture with her distinctive handwriting. Lina would tell stories about what we had missed; she brought us together even though we're in many places.

The white house in Jasper with the souvenir spoons hanging on the wall. The basement with Fischer-Price toys. Ben loved the airplane. Boehman Christmas time...

I hear her voice singing along at karaoke... and before that around the fires where Boehmans gathered. Such a special joy--Boehmans singing together.

Her graduation picture as a nurse. Her love of Jerry and Angie, Audrey and Alan.

Lina saying, "Missy..." "Steve". "Now, let me show you..."

Thank you, Aunt Lina.

“ Our prayers for a very dear cousin. The memories of her at our Fischer family reunions are what I will remember the most. She was great on keeping us updated on our family ties, with the Fischer families growing by leaps and bounds. Jim is 83 and I'm 82 and we know our time is coming and will meet her soon❤️❤️
