Lois J. Oxley, age 91, of Jasper, Indiana, passed away peacefully at 1:25 a.m. on Sunday, December 14, 2025, at Legacy Living in Jasper, Indiana.

Lois was born in Jasper, Indiana, on March 29, 1934, to Louis and Anna (Scherle) Borho. She married Thurman R. Oxley on September 12, 1953. He preceded her in death on April 22, 1994.

She was kind, unassuming and caring, with a natural instinct for helping and comforting others. She was devout in her faith, and praying the rosary for others was a daily and important part of her life.

She was a member of Precious Blood Catholic Church in Jasper, Indiana, and the V.F.W. Auxiliary.

Along with her husband, she owned and operated local restaurants for many years.

Surviving is one daughter, Janet L. (Tom) Schultheis, Jasper, IN, one son, John (Lynn) Oxley, Roswell, GA, six grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death besides her husband and parents are a brother, Edward Bohro, and a sister, Mary Ann Holle.

The family expresses their gratitude to the staff of Legacy Living for their excellent and compassionate care.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery in Jasper. Services will be private and no public visitation will be held.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, memorial contributions can be made to Precious Blood Catholic Church or to the Sisters of St. Benedict, in Ferdinand, Indiana.

Online condolences may be made at www.becherkluesner.com.

“ So sorry for the losing off your mother, but from Silk the kind words about her I'm sure she was a wonderful lady. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon her.
May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

“ Janet and John, Lois and Thurman were the best neighbors! Lois treated my kids like they were her own. When she made a big pot of soup, we were always treated with a container! When I needed advice (on husbands) she would share her stories with Thurman! She was full of energy and always had a smile on her face. She will be truly missed! Dean and Jill Schmitt
