“ She was one amazing, loving lady! She made me feel comfortable at the Acme Metal Christmas parties where her husband, Alf, and Mike worked many years back. Her and Alf were a sweet couple and they cared about everyone and the company. She never forgot me over the years and we would chat together at St Charles when I was working there for a client, and we would talk about those years back. She never forgot me and after many years not seeing each other she remembered me when we saw each other at Walgreens where she was working part time. It was obvious she loved people. Our sympathy to her loving family especially Patty, a classmate and a friend.
