“ It was heart breaking to here of Lucy's passing. I still remember the first time I met her at the Whoop. She immediately made me feel at home and welcome. We had some great discussions about many topics. She made me laugh and I always enjoyed spending time with her and her sister Corina. Lucy, you will be missed! My condolences to the entire family.

“ Well, at the risk of looking like an idiot, I don't know if the last message I sent actually posted so if I'm repeating myself, I do apologize but I wanted to make sure and get my fondest memories of Lucy out there so I don't know if I previously posted this, but All through high school, I knew Lucy once she even let me borrow her car, the beautiful red Mustang to take a girl to prom. She only asked to bring the car back in one piece. Well, it was high school prom, but I found this memory of her was when I was 15 first job at Mazzio's Pizza working with Lucy. She often offered to give me rides to work and back, and we often would sing our hearts out in the car we both love to sing, but she would blast Chicago. You're the inspiration, and we both were seeing at the top of our lungs and it was almost appropriate song for such a person as Lucy time went on. We lost touch. I moved out of state, but I never forgot Lucy. I hope she is at peace safe travels Nathan again if I posted twice, I apologize
