Lynn was more than a cousin to me. She always made me feel like I was someone special. Her love for singing Christmas songs was very noticeable. Though she hadn't been able to be at the gatherings in the past, she will be Greatly missed. God has another voice in his choir that is like we have never heard here on earth. I plan to see her again someday!

Lyn was always a bright spot whenever she was around. She was so special! She loved everything about Christmas except when someone tried to trade gifts with her during the gift exchange. She will be missed. We have more to go to Heaven for than we did yesterday.

Where do I begin? Lyn lit up the room when she walked in! Always greeting everyone and giving hugs. One of her favorite things to do was singing Christmas carols on Thanksgiving/Christmas. We have already missed this the last few years. We are thankful for the many memories and most of all happy she's made her forever home in heaven. Planning to see her again one of these days! ❤️ Lesa

Well, Uncle Don finally got Lynn to go home with him. Every time he teased her to pack her bags and then they would have a BIG laugh. Couldn't find a better Center of Attention and I'm gonna miss my favorite cousin. Can't wait to see you again! Doug

I remember mother baby sat Lyn while her parents were away. Always such a happy baby. We loved keeping her! Then like the others said singing Christmas Carols and songs! Always sooo happy and friendly with everyone. I know my parents loved Lyn!! They may have already met up with her. What a reunion it is going to be! I know I plan to make it and I pray our family circle will be unbroken! I plan to meet you there! ❤️
